Option 1 : Udon Thani (Nature and Heritage + City Vibes)

Morning

- Boat trip at Talay Bua Daeng (Best visited between December and March during the pink lotus bloom season) or,
- Visit Ban Chiang, which is a UNESCO World Heritage-listed archaeological site in Udon Thani, Thailand, recognized as the most significant prehistoric settlement in Southeast Asia. Discovered in 1966, it revealed 4,000-year-old evidence of early bronze-making, specialized agriculture (wet rice), and distinctive red-painted pottery.

Late Morning / Lunch

- Try local Isan food (som tam, grilled chicken, sticky rice)

Afternoon

- Visit Wat Phothisomphon Temple, Udonthani City Museum and enjoy a relaxing walk or bicycle ride at Nong Prajak Park. (Optional) café stop for refreshments.
- Optional Stop: Ban Na Kha, a traditional weaving village located about 16 km north of Udon Thani, known for its beautiful khit silk and cotton textiles. Visitors can browse local markets, see handcrafted fabrics, and shop for authentic Thai souvenirs.

Evening (Tour ends around 20:00 with hotel drop-off in Udon Thani)

- Udonthani local night market experience: Street food + shopping + chill vibe

Option 2 : Nong Khai (Mekong River + Unique Sights)

Morning

- Travel from Udon Thani to Nong Khai (~1 hour)
- Visit Wat Pha Tak Suea Skywalk

✨ Highlights: Transparent glass skywalk overlooking the Mekong River and Panoramic views of Thailand & Laos

Late Morning

- Stop by Thai-Lao Friendship Bridge and local temple for photos

Lunch :

- Riverside Lunch by the Mekong River : Enjoy a relaxing lunch at a carefully selected riverside restaurant featuring authentic Thai or international cuisine (Selected meal and drinking water included in the package.)

Afternoon

- Visit local temple and Sala Keoku ; A unique park filled with massive, surreal religious sculptures
- Stop at a local cafe for refreshing

Evening : (Tour ends around 20:00 with hotel drop-off in Udon Thani or Nong Khai)

- Relax along the Mekong River promenade and enjoy the sunset views
- Explore the night market for local street food
