Option 1 : Udon Thani (Nature and Heritage + City Vibes)

Morning

- Boat trip at Talay Bua Daeng (Recommended program between December -March for full pink lotus bloom) or,
- Visit Ban Chiang, which is a UNESCO World Heritage-listed archaeological site in Udon Thani, Thailand, recognized as the most significant prehistoric settlement in Southeast Asia. Discovered in 1966, it revealed 4,000-year-old evidence of early bronze-making, specialized agriculture (wet rice), and distinctive red-painted pottery.

Late Morning / Lunch

- Try local Isan food (som tam, grilled chicken, sticky rice)

Afternoon

- Visit Wat Phothisomphon Temple, Udonthani City Museum and Relax walk or bike at Nong Prajak Park (Optional)
- Optional Stop: Ban Na Kha, a traditional weaving village located about 16 km north of Udon Thani, known for its beautiful khit silk and cotton textiles. Visitors can browse local markets, see handcrafted fabrics, and shop for authentic Thai souvenirs.

Evening (Trip ends at 20:00 and drop off at the hotel in Udon Thani)

- Explore UD Town: Street food + shopping + chill vibe

Option 2 : Nong Khai (Mekong River + Unique Sights)

Morning

- Travel from Udon Thani to Nong Khai (~1 hour)
- Visit Wat Pha Tak Suea Skywalk

Highlights:

- Transparent glass skywalk overlooking the Mekong River
- Panoramic views of Thailand & Laos

Late Morning

- Stop by Thai-Lao Friendship Bridge and local temple for photos

Lunch

- Enjoy lunch at a riverside restaurant along the Mekong
- Recommended dishes: grilled fish, tom yum soup, papaya salad

Afternoon

- Visit Sala Keoku; A unique park filled with massive, surreal religious sculptures
- Stop at a local cafe for refreshing

Evening : (Trip ends at 20:00 and drop off at the hotel in Udon Thani or Nong Khai)

- Walk along the Mekong river promenade, relax and enjoy the sunset views
- Explore the night market for local street food
